ANNUAL PREA REPORT AND ALLIGATION SUMMARY

2021

The Lake Region Residential Reentry Center (LRRRC) is a branch of the Lake Region Law Enforcement Center (LEC). On February 15, 2022, the PREA review board met and reviewed all PREA related allegations received in 2021. In total there were (2) allegations of PREA incidents in 2021 that resulted in the following findings:

- Two (2) allegations of staff on resident misconduct that were substantiated.

In 2022 the Lake Region Residential Reentry Center will provide staff with PREA training and awareness during the orientation process of employment and annually to ensure PREA compliance at the facility. In 2022, the LRRRC will limit the use of employee cell phone usage within the facility to reduce the potential of staff misconduct and enhance the security of the facility. The LRRRC will continue to educate residents and staff on an ongoing basis to maintain the safety and security of the facility for residents and staff.

All previous audits are posted on the facility website
